

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

St. Louis doctors are preparing for a cholera harvest.

ELLA MONKIN, aged ten years, at Steubenville, Ohio, was killed while playing on a flying horse.

SECRETARY FOLGER is suffering from weak eyes, and is compelled to remain in a darkened room.

A FIVE year old boy in Chicago was killed by the cable car on Sunday. The conductor was arrested.

J. D. COLLYER, said to be the son of Rev. Dr. Robert Collyer, of New York, is wanted in St. Louis for forgery.

The Louisville Fair Association has joined the Ohio and Kentucky circuit. The circuit opens at Louisville May 1.

GEN. W. P. RICHARDSON, a well known attorney of Marietta, Ohio, is lying critically ill from a third stroke of paralysis.

A COPPER mine has been discovered on the farm of William Bowles, in Summers county, W. Va., said to be nearly five feet thick.

DAVID KIDNEY, who assaulted and robbed Messenger Ullman, in New York, of $1,500, was sentenced to eighteen years' imprisonment.

In Vananant county, Texas, Constable Rose shot and killed Constable Tucker, who resisted arrest for killing a ferocious dog which had attacked him.

The Louisville police force having been increased the number of platoons has also been increased, while the length of watches has been reduced from eight to six hours.

AUGUSTUS POLLOCK, the most extensive stogie manufacturer in West Virginia, will, on the first of May, advance the price for manufacturing stogies twenty-five cents per 1,000.

The Indiana Superintendent of Public Instruction is making ready a school exhibit for Indiana for the Educational Congress to be opened at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, June 1.

At New York William C. Russell, alias Ballard, and numerous aliases, the notorious bigamist, swindler and thief, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment on a charge of obtaining money on a worthless check.

GEORGE V. WILLIAMS, in charge of the Relief Fund of the New York Herald, made 230 landings between Ripley, O., and Paducah, Ky., and in that distance gave out $21,000 in money, mostly in sums of $30 to individuals.

The Executive Committee of the National Cotton Planters' Association held a meeting at Vicksburg. Action on location of the Cotton Centennial Exposition was postponed at the request of promoters of the enterprise in New Orleans.

Reports from Limerick say that, owing to the improved condition of affairs in that city, the extra force of police, which has been kept up for some time past, has been materially decreased. This was done on the advice of Clifford Lloyd, Magistrate of Limerick.

At Youngstown, O., Governor Clark, a son of Ralsey Clark, a millionaire, of Burghill, Trumbull county, was enticed into a ranch on Hazel street and fleeced out of $500 in cash, while playing cards with a fellow named Wallace, an expeditious bird. Clark's mind was bewildered, and he claims to have been the victim of drugged liquor.

BREBE BOOTH, the venerable father of ex-Senator Booth, of California, and who makes his home in Indianapolis, has but recently celebrated his ninetieth birthday. Mr. Booth is the oldest newspaper publisher in the State of Indiana. His connection with the press began in 1818, in Indiana, when he published the Weekly Tocsin, at Salem.

The United States Supreme Court has reversed the decision of the Supreme Court of Missouri in the famous Krug murder case. Krug has had six trials, and has had three times been sentenced to be hanged. It is now believed that he will shortly be discharged from custody, as he can only be tried for murder in the second degree, and the evidence as the case is presented by the State will show murder in the first degree.

The New York Herald's Relief Commission.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 3.—George V. Williams, the New York Herald Commissioner in charge of the Herald Relief Fund, is in the city consulting with the Board of Trade Committee as to the proper distribution of relief. The local committee has about $12,000 on hand, and Mr. Williams has $9,000, the remainder of the $30,000 with which he started from New York. Mr. Williams says he made from Ripley, O., to Paducah, Ky., 230 landings, and relieved about 2,000 families, not including those relieved by committees in larger cities. He gave out the money to individuals in sums of about $30, though larger amounts were given committees. He does not think the effects of the floods will be of permanent harm. He says the people are rapidly recuperating, and he was pleased to find them disposed to help one another, many declining relief themselves in order that neighbors might be aided. He, however, had something for all.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

Mostly Non-Partisan and Without Political Significance.

A Majority of the Towns Report Democratic Gains Personal Matters, However, Seem to Have Entered Luridly into the Contest.

WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, O., March 3.—Returns from the elections are too meager to estimate the results accurately. From present indications the result of the Republican primaries is as follows: For State Senator, Jesse N. Oren; for County Auditor, A. H. Jenkins; Treasurer, I. W. Matthews; Recorder, E. B. Howland; Commissioner, Jonas Watkins; Representative, D. S. King. A bitter fight was made for Auditor, and the result of the primaries is anything but satisfactory, many Republicans threatening to bolt the nomination.

In Wilmington the members of the old Council were re-elected, as follows: W. G. Terrell, L. D. Sayres and F. M. Moore. In the township, H. H. Lewis, William L. Wall and John Clevenger are undoubtedly elected Trustees; R. C. Stumm, Clerk; Thomas L. Reaher, Treasurer; Calvin Davis, Assessor, and C. H. Street, Constable. Much interest was manifested in the election, and a full vote polled.

CLEVELAND AND ADJACENT TOWNS.

CLEVELAND, O., April 3.—Last spring the Democrats elected their ticket for the first time in years. Last fall the Republican party again suffered defeat. The municipal elections yesterday have resulted in another Democratic victory. John H. Farley was elected Mayor by a majority of 3,000 or 4,000; Thomas Alworthy, City Treasurer, by 2,000; John C. Hutchins, for Police Court Judge, against whom a very bitter fight was made, was elected by 1,000 majority. The balance of the Democratic city ticket was elected by majorities ranging from 1,000 to 4,000. The Democrats are jubilant over their success, and paraded the streets last night with bands and banners.

Advices from Ashtabula, Youngstown, Vermilion, Girard, and other towns say the entire Democratic ticket is elected. Conneaut went Republican by a small majority.

ATHENS.

ATHENS, O., April 3.—The election here passed off quietly. An unusually large vote was polled. The election was non-partisan, and entirely without political significance. Peter Pfisterwald was elected Marshal; F. D. Pickering, Street Commissioner, and J. D. Brown, Jesse Cornell, and H. M. Raach, members of the Council. All the officers elected are Republicans.

CHILlicothe.

CHILlicothe, O., April 3.—Complete returns from all the wards show that the entire Democratic ticket has been elected, although a bitter fight was made by the opposition. Following are the majorities: Mayor, David Smart, 261; City Solicitor, Silas F. Garret, 486; Marshal, James Conley, 156; Street Commissioner, Charles Litterest, 56.

POMEROY, O.

POMEROY, O., April 3.—The election in this city resulted in the election of Charles Weldt, Democrat, for Mayor; J. B. Scott, Republican, for Marshal; O. L. Bradbury, Republican, for Solicitor, and Abraham Keiser, Republican, for Street Commissioner.

AKRON.

AKRON, April 3.—The election passed off quietly, a very large vote being polled. There has been more scratching than has ever been known before in the city. The result is not yet known with any degree of accuracy, but so far as returns have been received it shows the election of L. D. Watter, Democrat, for Mayor, by at least 150 majority; John McCourt, Republican, for Marshal, by 100; C. S. Cobb, Republican, for Solicitor, by 25; James Wildos, Republican, for Street Commissioner, by 200. The Democracy gain four members of the City Council by majorities ranging from 3 to 75. This gives 7 Democrats to 5 Republicans in the City Council. In the Board of Education the Democrats gain two members, making that body stand 8 Republicans and 4 Democrats.

LANCASTER.

LANCASTER, O., April 3.—The Republicans elected their Marshal, City Solicitor, one member of the Board of Education, one Trustee, one Water Works Commissioner, one Cemetery Trustee, and two members of the Council. Being a complete reversal of the results attained by the Democracy heretofore.

GREENVILLE.

GREENVILLE, O., April 3.—Quite a large vote was polled in this county, at the Democratic primary election and judicial election, resulting in the following nominations: Representative, David Baker; Sheriff, Thos. A. Lechlitter; Commissioner, John G. Danbier; Coroner, D. C. Oliver; Infirmary Director, Samuel Leidy, John W. Sater. The Democratic nominee for Judge received more than his party strength in this county, over the determined opposition of the Greenville Democrat, and is undoubtedly elected by a large majority.

The Fifth Ward gives Farley, for Mayor, 1,000 majority. This is a Democratic gain of 500 over the vote for Mayor two years ago. The Eighth Ward gives Farley 950 majority; the Seventh, 750 majority, and the Tenth, 210 majority. The Democrats will elect ten out of eighteen members of the Board of Education and two-thirds of the City Council will be Democratic. The Germans voted solidly for the Democratic ticket. John C. Hutchins, who was bolted by many workmen, is elected Judge of the Police Court by about 1,000 majority. Leading Democrats claim that Farley's majority will be over 5,000.

WAPAKONETA.

WAPAKONETA, April 3.—The elections excited more than usual interest. All the wards in the town are Democratic. All the Democratic town and township officers were elected by the usual majorities.

The most interest, however, centered about the Democratic primary election, which was also held yesterday, the contest for Auditor being the main fight. The candidates were Arthur Bitler, of this place, and W. F. Torrence, of New Bremen. The latter is probably nominated by 500 majority. The Democratic ticket, as nominated, is as follows: For Representative, the present incumbent, G. W. Holbrook; for Auditor, W. F. Torrence; for Surveyor, John Walsh; for Commissioner, John West; for Infirmary Director, Henry Reiselt. On some of the candidates heavy betting was done, and considerable money changed hands.

COLUMBUS.

COLUMBUS, O., April 3.—The election passed off quietly. Its absolute quietness was perhaps its most popular feature. The fight seemed to be concentrated upon the head of the ticket by some of the elements of the Republican party. Otherwise it was centralized upon the balance of the city ticket. Returns from seventeen precincts indicate the election of the head of the Republican ticket, General C. C. Walcott, for the Mayoralty. Otherwise the complete Democratic city ticket has been elected. General Walcott made large gains in the German wards, and the balance of the Democratic ticket made large gains in the same wards. Thus the question became less political and more personal, so far as the head of the ticket was concerned. The Democratic party practically gained the advantage.

MT. VERNON.

MT. VERNON, O., April 3.—The result of the election is as follows: Marshal, Henry Cooper; Street Commissioner, Joshua Hyde; members of the School Board, L. P. Holbrook and W. L. Waddell; Trustee of the Water-works, William Banning; Cemetery Trustee, O. W. Hubbell. The balance of the ticket is Republican, except one Councilman, Democrat, H. Young Rowley.

XENIA.

XENIA, O., April 3.—James Winano, Democrat, was elected City Solicitor. The republican primary resulted in the election of F. E. McCreely as Treasurer, W. R. Baker as Auditor, H. H. Conkling as Commissioner, John W. Manor as Infirmary Director, and Gest as Representative.

The Democrats elect four Councilmen out of six. We also elect our township ticket by a majority. There was an unusual amount of scratching done.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—Returns coming in slowly, owing largely to the fact that there were three distinct tickets in the field—Democratic, Republican and Municipal Reform. The lead pencil has been used with great liberality. The ward officers being voted for on the general ticket adds largely to the delay in completing returns. At midnight only fifteen precincts had completed the count. Estimates based on these leaves the election of Mayor in doubt. Esheley, Republican candidate for Comptroller, is re-elected by over 2,000 majority; Caldwell, Republican, Prosecutor, is also re-elected by about the same majority; Springmier, Democratic candidate for Board of Public Works, and VonMartels, Democratic candidate for Police Judge, are claimed to be elected.

LATER.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—The following figures are reported: Stephens, Democratic candidate for Mayor is claimed by the Democrats to have a majority of 2,500 over Sadler. Von Martels, Democratic candidate for Police Judge, 3,000 majority. All the rest of the Democratic ticket, with the exception of Shay, candidate for Prosecutor of Police Court, and Mulvihill, candidate for Comptroller, are elected by majorities varying from 600 to 800 majority. There is no question as to the election of Esheley.

STUEBENVILLE.

STUEBENVILLE, O., April 3.—Jas. McConville, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, was triumphantly elected in the hottest contest ever known in Steubenville, and by the largest vote ever polled in this city. Following is the vote: First Ward, Love, 228; McConville, 220; Second Ward, McConville, 379; Love, 370; Third Ward, McConville, 280; Love, 272; Fourth Ward, McConville, 245; Love, 204; Fifth Ward, McConville, 241; Love, 126; Sixth Ward, McConville, 155; Love, 103, which gives McConville 214 majority. The Democrats elect four out of six Councilmen. The Republican candidate for Marshal was elected.

PORTSMOUTH.

PORTSMOUTH, O., April 3.—The vote polled throughout the city has been a large one for a municipal election, only falling about 100 short of the vote on Secretary of State last fall. The Democrats have elected the Mayor by about 200 majority. The Republicans elect the remainder of the ticket by small and varying majorities.

TOLEDO.

TOLEDO, O., April 3.—The entire Democratic ticket is elected. The contest has been stubbornly fought, with a very few straight tickets voted—probably none. The scratching has been terrific. Republicans concede the election of the Democratic ticket, with the exception of Police Clerk.

MIDDLETOWN.

MIDDLETOWN, O., April 3.—The entire Democratic corporation ticket was elected, with one exception—that of Water-works Trustee, by the following figures: For Council, two years, H. P. Clough, 582, J. G. Lummins, 548, John Tutzi, 525; for Council, one year, Charles Long, 574; for Water-works Trustee, D. Bowman, Republican, 455, W. M. McLain, Democrat, 320.

EVANSVILLE, IND.

EVANSVILLE, IND., April 3.—The city election yesterday resulted in a Democratic victory, that party electing four Councilmen out of six, and the city ticket with probably one exception. On Mayor the majority will be 300.

ZANESVILLE.

ZANESVILLE, O., April 3.—The indications are that the Democrats elect the whole ticket by very small majorities, ranging from ten to 100. Great interest is manifested in the result, as the election is a very hotly contested one.

Prominent Preacher's Son Gone Wrong.

St. Louis, April 3.—J. D. Collyer, said to be the son of the Rev. Dr. Robert Collyer, the eminent Congregational divine of New York City, is wanted here for a forgery committed by him as a means of drawing his pay the second time for services rendered a railroad company. Collier has boarded the most of the time since he turned up in this city in the Grand Pacific Hotel.

Epidemic in St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 3.—The accumulation of filth and dirt in the city has produced an epidemic of virulent small-pox. People are almost panic stricken. Two districts are quarantined, and wholesale vaccination is being resorted to.

A Copper Mine in West Virginia.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 3.—A copper mine has just been discovered on the farm of William Bowles, in Summers county, this State. The vein is nearly five feet thick.

Fell Dead.

ALBON, O., April 2.—Mrs. Margaretta Woehler fell dead, from heart disease, on the street, last night, superinduced by excitement caused by an alarm of fire being sent in from the vicinity of her home.

INDIANS AT SCHOOL.

Industrial Training Mixed in With Their Studies.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Lieutenant Pratt, of the Indian Training School at Carlisle, Pa., in his report to General Eaton, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, gives some interesting facts about the Indian school and its results. The school was opened November 1, 1879, with 147 young Indians. Others were added, so that at the end of the first year there were 239 pupils in the school, at the end of the second year 295, and at the present time 379, of which number about one-third are girls and two-thirds boys. He says:

"From the beginning our principle has been to place the most emphasis on industrial training; next English speaking then literary training. To accomplish this we early in the work established shops for mechanical instructions in carpentry, blacksmithing, wagon making, harness making, tailoring, tin-smithing, shoemaking, printing and baking, and one farm of 115 acres gives some scope for agricultural training. We have avoided theory in our training, adhered to practice, being governed to a great extent by the old apprentice system. They give half of each day to work and the other half to school, and we have found that our progress is proportionately greater in each than if the attention was devoted to either the one or the other for the whole time.

Under this system we have under training as carpenters, thirteen boys; as wagon makers and blacksmiths, fifteen; as harness makers, fifteen; as shoemakers, nineteen; as tailors, twelve; as tanners, eleven; as printers, five; as bakers, three, and every boy not engaged at some trade is required to work upon the farm. We think our boys as forward in capacity for receiving instruction in each of the several branches as the average white boy. The blacksmith shop apprentices after two years' instruction, are able to iron a wagon, repair a plow, shoe a horse, etc. The other trades make like progress. The Lieutenant is of the opinion that the true solution of the Indian problem is to scatter the Indians among the whites the same as other foreign races are treated, breaking up tribal relations and encouraging labor and intelligence among them.

SECRETARY FOIGER.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Secretary Foiger suffered more intensely with his eyes today than he has at any time during his sickness. His physicians think he will have to remain in a darkened room for several days. When asked this morning when he proposed to start on his trip to the Bermudas, the Secretary laughingly said: "Ask the newspapers. They have decided several times upon the day of my departure."

DORSEY'S HOME-RUN.

The Star-Route Circus—A Point for the Defense.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Dorsey made an excellent home-run yesterday afternoon, which scored for him at least one good point today. Bliss was asking him about his connection with the mail route from Toquerville to Adairville, in Utah. "You must have made a good deal of money on that route, did you not, Mr. Dorsey?" inquired Bliss. "No, sir, I made nothing on that route," replied Dorsey. "Did you not make about $5,000 on that route?" continued Bliss, growing precise and specific. "No, sir, I did not make a cent on that route."

"Why, how so?" "Because Rendell stole $5,000 of the money on that route," replied Dorsey, to the astonishment of Bliss. "That is not so," heily fired back the chief lawyer.

"Well," drawled out Dorsey, in an emphatic and passionate tone, "to state it more correctly, it was only about $4,900 that Rendell stole from us on that route. Probably I was mistaken as to the exact amount. It was only about $4,900."

The native manner in which Dorsey brought out his point, and the readiness with which he sprung the trap on Bliss which Bliss had set for him, exasperated the lawyers for the Government and brought out applause from the friends of the defense. Aside from this incident, the proceedings were of a routine character. Argument was made pro and con on the demand of the Government that Dorsey produce his letter books. This Dorsey declined to do, because some 600 leaves had been torn out of the books, and among them was the letter of December 9, 1878, which the Government wanted. It is believed that Rendell knows who did the tearing, and where the leaves are now. The Court ruled that the defendant is now compelled to produce the books, but that the prosecution could introduce secondary evidence to favor their content.

Mr. B. U. Keyser was here sworn, and produced the account of S. W. Dorsey with the German-American National Bank, which shows that on July 25, 1878, a check was paid for $562.

Dorsey, resuming, said he only saw A. W. Moore but once. He said he had paid Moore $250 on Miner's order, and charged it to the firm of Miner, Peck & Co. He sent Rendell out in the summer of 1878 to look after the service, and advanced the contractors $3,000 which he took security for.

Merrick then began to examine the witness on the routes in detail, and was still on the Toquerville route when court adjourned.

POSTMASTER GENERALSHIP.

The Attorney General's Decision—Governor Porter, of Indiana, a Candidate.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Attorney General Brewster, in rendering his decision on the appointment of a Postmaster General, adopted the opinion delivered by his predecessor, Attorney General Devens, that the President has but ten days subsequent to the death of a Cabinet officer in which to appoint a successor. This gives the President twenty days from the death of Judge Howe to select a Postmaster General, or until April 14. The President intends leaving here for Florida on Wednesday next. Should he conclude to remain in the South beyond the time in which he must make the appointment, he will designate the Postmaster General from his resort. There are politicians here to-night who believe, however, that the appointment will be made to-morrow, and that the object of the President in postponing his departure one day was to decide upon a man for the place. Who the man will be no one will now venture to guess. As time moves on every one seems to veer out further from any definite idea upon the subject. Almost every man mentioned for the place now looms up with equal prominence, and there will not be very great surprise, no matter who the man shall be. An evening paper announces another candidate from Indiana in the following language: "One of the latest candidates for Postmaster General is Governor Porter, of Indiana, and he will, it is said, have the united support of the Republicans of his State for the place. It is urged in his behalf that his appointment would be a wise stroke in a political sense, in that it would encourage the Republicans of Indiana to greater efforts to recover the State. It is claimed for Governor Porter that he abandoned the First Comptrollership of the Treasury to enter the race for Governor, then regarded as a sort of forlorn hope; that he won after a gallant fight, and therefore is entitled to peculiar consideration."

Smallpox in St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 3.—Smallpox has made its appearance in the vicinity of St. Peters and St. Paul's school in this city, and fifteen cases have been reported to the Board of Health during the past few days, while quarantine is reported as filling up rapidly and a regular scourge is looked for in consequence.

Impelled by Jealousy.

MATAMORAS, MEX., April 3.—In the capital a gendarme named Revilla fell in love and lived with a woman, one Rosa Gonzales. Last night a fit of jealousy came over him, and going to the house of Rosa he shut and locked the door, stabbed her to the heart, and turned the knife against his own breast, inflicting two mortal stabs.
